1. General and definition

1.1 General

The Mister Bear Belgium election is a non-profit event. The election is organized in Brussels by the "BELGIUM BEARPRIDE" association. The aim of this association is Bear visibility, but also many militant commitments related to the LGBT+ community and is represented in particular at Rainbow House Brussels.

For the occasion of the Belgium bear pride (or bear week), one of its goals is to elect a candidate representing the "bear community".

The winner of the "mister bear Belgium" election will be the title holder for one year. During this period, he will represent the Belgian bear community.

1.2 Definitions

The bear community is a subdivision of the gay community. We hear of "Bears" - pronounce: [bairz] and non [birz] - ("ours" in French), gay and bisexual men with facial and body hair more or less provided and visible.

Some bears are also wrapped or big; it's not necessarily a differentiation feature.

Bears can also be distinguished into different subgroups, such as:

- Musclebears or muscular bears,
- "Chubbybears" or people who identify themselves from being big till obese,
- The "daddybears" where older bears with sub-categories "polaraddies" or "silverdaddies" appreciated for their white pilosities;
- Other categories of the bear scene, the "cubs" (literally boys), mainly young men who already have the assets to become future bears,
- Bear lovers, who are called "chasers" (literally hunters). These men are often thin and show a preference for bears.

The BELGIUM BEARPRIDE association specifically advocates going beyond simple definitions of the physical aspects, arguing that belonging to the bear community is also a state of mind advocating values such as inclusiveness, respect for difference and tolerance and that the only bodily features should not be a barrier.

1.3 - Generalities of the conduct of the election :

On Friday, October 1, the candidates will be questioned individually by the jury.

On Saturday, October 2, candidates will present themselves on the scene of the event "election Mr Bear Belgium" and will participate in the staging. A list of the complete activities will be given to the candidates and will be visible on the website www.belgiumbearpride.be.

On Sunday 3 October, the winner and the other contestants will be present at all the events organized by the Belgium bear Pride.
